.Thread – Majed Abu Sharar on the closure of the PLO office

It is our duty to intensify our media" against the enemy and against all Arab forces working to end the state of war with Israel at the expense of the Palestinian people." - Statement by the martyr Majed Abu Sharar, the Unified Information Officer in the Palestine Liberation Organization (PLO), regarding Sadat's decision to close the Voice of Palestine radio station broadcasting from ".Cairo, September 12, 1975

The decision to close the radio station and the offices of Fatah movement and the organization in Egypt came after criticism of the agreement signed by Sadat with Israel to separate between the Egyptian forces and the occupation forces in Sinai, and among its provisions allowing non-military ships heading to the occupation to pass through the Suez .Canal
