

The last Eid al-Fitr known to Palestinians before the Nakba

Muslims and Arabs across all their regions celebrate the blessed day of Eid-Al-Fitr (a sacred holy fiest)

This one, was the last Eid al-Fitr Palestinians celebrated before the Nakba (Catastrophe). The Palestine newspaper warmly congratulated the celebrants, with signs of the Nakba present in every letter of the congratulations: "Arab Palestine celebrates this occasion with the mournful celebration of fate, enduring the woes, and knowing that victory is near..."

(Edition of Palestine newspaper, August 17, 1947, Newspaper Archives)

Eid and the Prisoners

Eid is a painful occasion for prisoners, heavy on their hearts, burdened on their minds, forcing the prisoner to recall a tapestry of memories, with various scenes and stations.

May our prisoners be closer to freedom every year, may God return it to us while our country is liberated from the pollution of occupiers.